Section 2: The GCYFL may consider granting a criminal record exemption for an individual when the individual's criminal record history meets all of the applicable criteria specified in Sections (1) through (6) below, and the individual provides the Department with substantial and convincing evidence of good character.

- (1) The individual has been convicted of one nonviolent misdemeanor, and one year has lapsed since completing the most recent period of incarceration or probation.
- (2) The individual has been convicted of two or more nonviolent misdemeanors and four consecutive years have lapsed since completing the most recent period of incarceration, probation or parole, whichever is latest.
- (3) The individual has been convicted of one or more violent misdemeanors and 15 consecutive years have lapsed since completing the most recent period of incarceration, probation or parole, whichever is latest.
- (4) The individual has been convicted of one nonviolent felony and four consecutive years have lapsed since completing the most recent period of incarceration, probation or parole, whichever is latest.
- (5) The individual has been convicted of two or more nonviolent felonies and ten consecutive years have lapsed since completing the most recent period of incarceration, probation or parole, whichever is latest.
- (6) The individual has not been convicted of a violent felony.

For purposes of this section, a violent crime is a crime that, upon evaluation of the code section violated and/or the reports regarding the underlying offense, presents a risk of harm or violence.

Section 3: If the GCYFL denies or cannot grant a criminal record exemption the league shall:

- (1) For initial applicants, deny the application.
- (2) For current coaches, the GCYFL may institute an administrative action, including, but not limited to, banning the coach from serving as a coach in the league.
